Registration Preparation

Graduate Students

The fall 2000 on-line registration and drop/add period for all graduate students except GSSW students will begin on April 12 at 8:00 A.M. and continue through 11:00 P.M. on September 11. GSSW students may register for summer on April 18 at 7:00 P.M. and for fall on May 2 at 7:00 P.M. Graduate students in GSA&S, CGSOM, LGSOE, GSON, and GSSW who register before August 15, 2000, will have their registration fee waived. This waiver only applies to those students who complete their registration by August 15. Students who add courses after August 15 will be charged the $15 registration fee.

Students registered for Doctoral Continuation in the spring will be registered for the fall unless they graduate in May or are enrolled in programs that require departmental permission. Those students whose departments require permission need to obtain a departmental override. Graduate students using Lynch School of Education teaching vouchers should see Patricia O’Kane in the Office(s) of Students and Outreach.

Special Students who have not applied to a degree program or who have applied but have not yet been accepted and wish to take graduate level courses must apply as special students to the appropriate graduate school. This policy also applies to students who wish to take graduate level courses using teaching vouchers and have not applied or been accepted into a graduate school at Boston College. Those who have previously taken courses using vouchers should contact the Admission Offices to be readmitted.

Undergraduate Students

The fall 2000 registration and drop/add period for undergraduates will begin on April 13 and continue through 11:00 P.M. on September 11. CSOM students in the Classes of 2001 and 2002 will receive their registration materials in the mail during the week of March 20. All other undergraduates must pick up their Registration Information/Degree Audit forms from their advisors beginning April 3.

Registration Procedures

Graduate and undergraduate students register and drop/add using either the U-View Plus system—available from any computer terminal or micro-computer with a network (EagleNet) connection or with a dialup (modem) connection to BC’s administrative mainframe computer—or the U-Dial/voice-response system. U-Dial can be accessed from a touch-tone telephone by dialing 617-552-8800. The registration systems will be available seven days a week (with exceptions) until 11:00 P.M. through September 11.

Undergraduates can register at or after their appointment times; graduate students may register on or after April 12. All students may drop/add any time after they have registered. Drop/adds after September 11 must be approved by the appropriate department/Dean’s Office.

Undergraduate Students

Undergraduates will need (1) a Personal Identification Number (PIN) and (2) a 4-digit registration access code. The registration access code is printed on the Registration Information/Degree Audit form. The access code is necessary in order to register; it ensures that students have met with their faculty advisors, if required for their school and class year.

The Registration Information/Degree Audit form also includes the registration appointment time and a complete Degree Audit. The Degree Audit is a computerized matching of the degree requirements for a student’s class year, school, and major with the courses that have been completed. If the Degree Audit is not accurate, students should make an appointment to see their Recorder. The Recorder’s name, telephone number, and E-Mail address are listed on the Registration Information/Degree Audit form.

Undergraduates have been assigned a registration appointment time based on class year. Appointments are scheduled from 8:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. and should not conflict with course schedules. Since the appointment time is stored on the computer, undergraduates may not register before their appointment, although they may register any time thereafter.

Registration Information

Advising

Undergraduates must schedule an appointment with an advisor to review course selections. Students can check their records on U-View for their advisor’s name. U-View machines are located in Lyons basement, O’Neill Library, McGuinn lobby, Lower Campus Dining Hall or McElroy. If you are acting as a proxy for a student who is in an International Study program take the proxy form to Lyons Hall, where you can pick up the student’s registration material and register for him or her. CSOM students should reference their school’s advising Web site at <http://www.bc.edu/csomadvice.html> before registering for courses.

Course Descriptions

Access the Office of Student Services’ Web site for course descriptions at the following address: <http://www.bc.edu/courses>. Use the Schedule of Courses on the Web to determine the index, section numbers, and the meeting time of each course. You may also browse courses on U-View Plus by using the “C” option, which will access both fall and spring semester courses, or search for courses by instructor name, by course title, and by open courses (not closed or canceled).

Course Restrictions/Closed Courses

An asterisk (*) next to a course indicates a restriction. The specific restriction is printed underneath the course. Courses may be restricted by school (e.g., For Education Only), by degree (e.g., For Doctoral Students Only), or by major (e.g., For Economics Majors Only). Other courses, or sections of courses, may be held by the department so that they are unavailable during certain periods of registration. Some courses (including all graduate courses) may be available to undergraduates with department permission only. Note: If you are planning to change your major, be sure to check the General Information section for instructions.

Overrides

In exceptional cases, a department may decide to override a course restriction. If you wish to obtain an override for a course that was closed or restricted when you registered, see the department offering the course. If the department chairperson or assistant decides to allow you to register for the course, he or she will give you an Approval/Override form. The form must be stamped in the appropriate section: Open/Restricted overrides school, major, degree and department restrictions; Override for a Closed Course overrides all restrictions and size limits for closed courses. In rare cases you may need to obtain permission to override a corequisite or to register for two courses that conflict in time. In those cases the Approval for Time Conflict must be signed.

If you obtain an override for a restricted or closed course take the form to Lyons Hall after you have registered. You cannot process overrides through U-Dial or U-View Plus.

Students in A&S, CSOM, and SON, who maintain a 3.00 GPA, may add a sixth course on-line (up to 20 credits) during the first week of classes.

Registration Holds

If you have an outstanding balance on your student account, are missing a transcript from a university you attended previously, or have failed to submit proof of immunization to the Health Services Office, a hold may be placed on your registration. If a registration hold message appears on the screen, you must see the appropriate office to resolve the situation before you can register.

Immunization Requirement

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts requires that all full-time college students show proof of immunization against measles (2 doses), mumps, rubella, tetanus-diphtheria, and tuberculosis (tuberculosis test within the past 2 years). If you have not submitted the Immunization Verification form you must do so before registering. Students who fail to provide proof of immunization prior to registering for their second semester at Boston College will not be permitted to register. To obtain an Immunization Verification form contact Health Services at 617-552-3225 in Cushing Hall. Immunization Verification forms may also be downloaded from the Health Services web site at http://www.bc.edu/bc_org/svp/uhs/immuform.html.

Students whose personal religious beliefs forbid immunization or who can provide physician's documentation that immunizations should not be given because of pre-existing medical problems should contact Health Services.

All forms must be completed and returned by June 19, otherwise a “hold” will be placed upon your I.D. and class registration will be blocked. If the forms are not complete within 30 days from the beginning of the semester, your student account will be charged a $50 administrative fee.

Massachusetts Medical Insurance

Commonwealth of Massachusetts Law has mandated that all students, graduate and undergraduate, taking at least 75 percent of full-time credit hours must be covered by medical insurance providing a specified minimum coverage. Determination of whether or not a graduate student is required to enroll in the insurance program is based strictly on the actual number of credits for which the student is registered each semester.

Graduate students in the Schools of Social Work, Management, and Advancing Studies who register for 9 or more credits are considered 75 percent of full-time. Graduate students in the Schools of Arts and Sciences, Nursing and Education who register for 7 or more credits are considered 75 percent of full-time.

Please note: All doctoral students at Boston College will automatically be charged for the Boston College Medical Insurance unless a waiver is submitted showing comparable insurance.

Boston College will offer all students—graduate and undergraduate—the option of participating in the plan offered at the University or submitting a waiver. The details of the University’s Insurance plan are available on the U-View system or on the World Wide Web at agora.bc.edu.

Students may waive the BC insurance plan by completing the electronic waiver form on U-View or on the World Wide Web. Students under the age of 18 are required to submit a written waiver form with the signature of their parent/guardian. This form is available for download on the Web at www.bc.edu/studentservices. The waiver must be completed and submitted by October 6, 2000, for the fall semester and by February 9, 2001, for spring semester. Students who do not complete a waiver by the due dates will be enrolled and billed for the BC plan.

All part-time Bachelor and Master’s students, including those registered for Master’s Interim Study, who wish to purchase health insurance must enroll directly with the insurance company. The part-time enrollment form available at the Boston College Health Services department in Cushing Hall, at Walter W. Sussenguth and Associates, or on the Web at www.bc.edu/studentservices. The coverage becomes effective upon receipt of the application and payment by the insurer if received after the due dates above.

These restrictions include denied access to Housing and the Athletic Complex, use of the Meal Plan, the ability to drop and add courses, and to cash checks at the Cashier’s Office. In severe cases, students will be withdrawn from the University. In addition, a $100 late payment fee will be assessed on any account that is not resolved by the due date. Mailing Address Update

Undergraduate and graduate students can change their local, home, or parents’ addresses and telephone numbers on-line at <http://agora.bc.edu>. Be sure to update your local address for next semester to insure that you receive important mailings concerning registration, graduation, and housing. If you do not update your address you may not receive Boston College mailings, registration information, or your grades. The Dean of Students needs your local address in case of emergencies.

Because of the increasing number of students who need to have grades sent to more than one address, a second address file for grades has been established. To have grades mailed to more than one address, please notify Student Services by mail or in person. The request must include name, Eagle Number, school, second address, and signature. Your name and second address will be placed on file and grades mailed to both your home and second address each semester until you graduate.

Certificate of Enrollment

Deferment forms will be processed by the National Student Loan Clearinghouse after January 24, 2000 for spring 2000, and after September 11 for fall 2000 in accordance with Federal regulations. If you need an enrollment certification for deferment of a student loan, mail or fax the forms to the following address: Office of Student Services, Lyons Hall, Chestnut Hill, MA 02467 or stop by Lyons 101. Your deferment form will be forwarded to the National Student Loan Clearinghouse. If the enrollment certification does not require an official school seal or signature, you may process the certification on-line at <http://agora.bc.edu>.

If you register for Interim Study, Thesis Direction, Doctoral Continuation, Doctoral Comprehensives, a full-time Student Teaching Practica, or Internship, you are considered a full-time student. Special Programs

The Program for the Study of Faith, Peace, and Justice

This program offers students the opportunity to examine and intensify their faith commitments and to explore the significance of these commitments for the task of bringing about just and peaceful solutions to national and international problems. The Program sponsors courses, campus events, and special activities for its participants.

A&S or CSOM students who meet the academic requirements of the Program may minor in Faith, Peace, and Justice Studies. Alternatively, students may choose to concentrate on faith, peace, and justice concerns within their major field. In either case the same pattern applies, (i.e., an introductory course, UN 160 The Challenge of Justice, four intermediate courses taken with the advice and consent of the Director, and finally, UN 590 the Senior Seminar Project).

Campus events include speakers, religious ceremonies, student-faculty conferences, and less formal exchanges on issues of faith, peace, and justice. Special activities for participants of the Program include retreats, service days, lectures, discussions, and socials.

For further information, please contact Prof. Matthew Mullane, Carney 417, 617-552-3886.

PULSE Program

The PULSE Program provides students with the opportunity to explore questions of philosophy, theology, and other disciplines in courses which incorporate field work experience in one of Boston’s many social service organizations. Through the combination of academic reflection and community service, students are provided with a framework for understanding the intimate relationship between theory and practice.

Enrollment in the course Person and Social Responsibility is one of the options for fulfilling the Core requirement in Philosophy and Theology. In light of classic philosophical and theological texts, social science, fiction, and poetry, PULSE students address topics such as the relationship of self and society, the nature of community, the mystery of suffering and the practical difficulties of developing a just society, urbanism, homelessness, and alienation. PULSE students are challenged to investigate the insights offered by their readings in relation to their service work. Enrollment in the core level PULSE course is limited to freshmen, sophomores, and juniors. Spots in the course are very limited and are allocated on a first-come first served basis. For those students who want to continue their experience with the PULSE program or who were unable to enroll in the Core level class, several elective courses are offered. A philosophy and English course entitled Stories and Service looks at topics such as urbanism, homelessness, and alienation through texts by social scientists, novelists, philosophers, and poets. Other PULSE elective course titles are Values in Social Service and Health Care and Boston: An Urban Analysis.

All PULSE courses require a ten to twelve hour per week commitment to service. Carefully selected field placements in youth work, the correctional system, emergency shelters, AIDS and HIV services, legal and community advocacy, and literacy programs become the context in which students forge a critical and compassionate perspective both on society and on themselves.

University Capstone Courses

Reserved for seniors and second-semester juniors only, the Capstone program is designed to cap off college by facing the questions of life after graduation. The Capstone Seminars (UN 500-525) directly address the hopes and anxieties that seniors face but seldom find treated in traditional courses. They relate the life and learning of the past four years to the life and learning ahead. The Capstone Seminars take seriously the struggle to integrate four crucial areas of life: work, relationships, free time, and the search for the purpose of existence.

Ask some inevitable questions now, not later. How did my education prepare me to live? With everything I want to do, what will I have to compromise? How can I balance my career and my family? Can I find work with a higher meaning than my income?

Special features of the course:

- Faculty from various departments

- Each section limited to 15-20
- Class meetings held in leisurely, informal settings
- Innovative teaching methods, such as keeping a journal, interdisciplinary reading, guest speakers from professional life
- Capstone Seminars satisfy major requirements in certain departments.

To Register for a Capstone Seminar

You must be a senior or a second-semester junior to take the course. Different Capstone Seminars will be offered each semester. All Seminars are interdisciplinary: you may register for any one of the Seminars as a University (UN) course. If you find a particular Seminar closed, try to register under the cross-listed number (e.g., if UN 523 is closed, try to register for the class as TH 523, and vice versa). The Seminar can count as an elective for all students. For majors in English, Philosophy, and Theology, it can satisfy the major requirements if the student takes a seminar as cross-listed in the department of his/her major. Students are reminded that several Capstone seminars are cross-listed, both as University courses with a UN number and also as courses in the department of the professor offering the course. In case a course is closed be sure to check whether there is space under its cross-listed number.

Students must also understand the following rule:

NB: No student may take more than one Capstone seminar during his/her undergraduate years. Thus, you may not take two Capstone courses in one semester or in two different semesters. This is true whether the course is listed under a UN number or as course in a specific department. If a second Capstone course appears on your record, it will be removed. This could make you ineligible for graduation.

June 27-Aug 3

T TH 6:45-8:45 P.M.

In an interdisciplinary-critical manner, course explores four areas in which people try to foresee, describe and control the future, technology/science, literature, religion, psychology. Course examines issues of prediction and related content areas, develops skills in critical analysis and assessment of claims of prediction and discusses the differences between prediction and vision. TH 739.01 Ancient and Contemporary Christologies (2 credits)

Much of the impetus for the present reconsideration of Christology has come from scholarly critical study of the Christology of the very early Church. This course then, will focus first on the early emergence of Christology, especially as that is reflected in the New Testament literature, and second, on the manner in which this is being retained, assessed, and absorbed into today’s Christological reflection.

TH 779.01 Theology and the American Religious Experience (2 credits)

From Puritanism through the mid-twentieth century a distinctive tradition of American religious thought evolved. In countless ways that tradition of thought has shaped and continues to shape religious life and practice in the United States. Frequently its interaction with Catholic theology—both positively and negatively—goes unnoticed, although it is an important factor especially in the styles and demands of ministry in this country. This course will examine some of the most influential figures and movements within “classical” American religious thought and see how they illumine and are illumined by Catholic theology.

TH 918.01 Cosmic and Human Interdependence: A Biblical Perspective (2 credits)

The purpose of the course is to enable its participants to become more fully involved in the contemporary conversation about the relationship between the biblical religious traditions, namely, Judaism and Christianity, and ecology. In 1967 Lynn White published an article in which he blamed Christianity for the present environmental crisis. Humanity’s domination of their surroundings has resulted in the rape of the environment with little or no regard for the preservation of balance within ecosystems. The course will evaluate White’s assumptions and conclusions and proceed to provide other interpretations, traditional and post-modern. In light of ancient production and interpretation of texts and historical re-interpretations, the question on which the course is based is the following: What does it mean to do biblical interpretation at the end of the second millennium in a global context that is developing an ever great awareness of the limited nature of natural resources and an increasing appreciation of the interdependence of created matter in the cosmos?

TH 919.01 Sexual Ethics: Embodiment and Social Justice (2 credits)

Week 1: Dimensions of Human Sexuality.

In the first week we will explore dimensions of our sexuality. Beginning with our embodiment, we will look at how we are embodied selves, how our selves are always in relation to others, how we are therefore socially constructed and how the personal is political. Using resources from Christian, Buddhist, Jewish, and other religious traditions, we will examine the meaning of plastic surgery and the quest for “beauty,” reasons for celibacy and the joys of sexual congress, the prevalence of rape and violence and their implications for male and female sexual identity, and how gender politics and sexuality are intertwined.

Week 2: Sources for Ethical Decision-Making.

In the second week we will turn to sources that help us to shape an adequate ethical response to these dimensions of our human sexuality. Using a range of religious and secular resources, we will look at scripture, tradition, reason and experience as sources of insight and guidance. During this week, we will ask what difference the discovery of a “gay gene” makes, how to honor and interpret traditional magisterial teachings, how new methods of scriptural analysis allow us to locate hidden “voices” in the tradition and what role reason plays in a passionate sexual life.

TH 920.01 Celtic Spirituality: Its Roots and Wings (2 credits)

Much of our theology is tired and repetitive. It seems difficult to discover or awaken any new or autonomous thought sources to invigorate theology and render it dangerous and engaging again. Perhaps the conversation with Celtic Spirituality could offer us something new here. In this series of lectures, we will explore this frontier. We will attempt to ground a poetics for a new theology. Moving in and out of the Celtic Imagination, we will endeavor to bring the harvest from such a conversation to the surface. The discoveries of the Celtic Mind will be a frequent source and reference but by no means the exclusive one. The fundamental thrust of our exploration will rely on the model of the classical conversation between epistemology and ontology. Poetically stated, we will listen to many voices, especially the Celtic voice, in an attempt to articulate a new theological ontology that might balance the sense of danger with the joy of homecoming.

TH 605.01 Theology and Pastoral Practice: Integrative Colloquium (2 credits)

Participants will be challenged to bring to reflection and dialogue issues addressing the contemporary practice of ministry with the collective wisdom of the Christian tradition. TH 530.01, TH 530.02 Supervised Ministry (2 credits)

Summer-6 weeks

TH 530.01 (M.A. Students), TH 530.02 (M.Ed. Students)

This program provides students with supervised experience in their areas of ministerial specialization. Through supervision in the field, discussion with other participants, reading and theological reflection, students will become familiar with the needs of special groups of people and will develop models of ministry that are applicable to their own situations. During the academic year, in addition to field experience of approximately 12-15 hours per week, students will participate in a supervised practicum extending through the entire academic year.

The practicum provides a group exploration of theological and ministerial concerns drawn from the field experience. Process analysis will be used to critique performance and to develop personal skills and individual styles of ministry. If the Supervised Ministry component is completed in the summer, participants should be prepared to devote approximately 22-24 hours per week for each of the six weeks of the summer program. Students should meet with the Coordinator of Supervised Ministry during their first year of study to explore options for Supervised Ministry.

A mini-practicum component helps students develop competence in indoor, and pre-cane mobility.

Literature Core Sections

EN 080.01 Literary Forms (Fall: 3)

Satisfies Literature Core Requirement

Reading, writing and wide-ranging discussions about poetry, drama and fiction (the short story), and how the forms of each genre interplay with the others. The poetry section will range from the Medieval ballad and the sonnet up through free verse and Jazz improvisations. We'll include the more canonical figures—Shakespeare, Donne, Herbert, Pope, Johnson, Wordsworth, Keats, Hopkins, Browning, Hardy, Whitman, Dickinson, Yeats, Frost, Eliot, Stevens, Williams, Hart Crane, Langston Hughes, D.H. Lawrence, Dylan Thomas—and then move up to some of the more recent poets, like Elizabeth Bishop, Robert Lowell, John Berryman, Seamus Heaney, Philip Levine, Yusef Komunyakaa, Rita Dove, Bill Matthews, and Louis Glück.

We'll also study plays by Sophocles, Shakespeare, Ibsen, Arthur Miller, and David Mamet and try out some scenes in class as a way of better understanding the interplay of psychological forces that makes the human condition so varied and interesting. And, as time allow, we may look at a short story or two to see narrative interplays with character and language. There will be regular writing assignments (including the chance to revise your work) and class presentations throughout the semester.

EN 081.01 Literary Themes: Visions of Guilt and Innocence (Fall: 3)

In this course we will explore the themes of guilt and innocence in works of many periods—from the ancient Greeks to the contemporary—and across genres: fiction, plays, and poetry. We will explore how writers, and characters, define or imply moral standings in actions, and examine the consequences when certain characters betray those standings. Throughout the semester, then, we will consider concepts of responsibility, culpability, faithfulness and betrayal. We will also consider standards of guilt and circumstance and the reliability of the teller of the tale.

EN 082.01 Literature and Society: Staging the American Family (Fall: 3)

Satisfies Literature Core Requirement

What makes an American family? Is the family a constraint or a haven, a blessing or a curse? Is it in crisis? In this course we will read representative nineteenth- and twentieth-century texts—mostly plays, but some fiction and Poetry—that “stage” the American family in an attempt to understand a culture in process. We will investigate how “family values,” together with our very notion of what constitutes a family, have shifted in response to changing social, cultural, and sexual mores. Our playwrights may well include Eugene O'Neill, Arthur Miller, Tennessee Williams, Sam Shepard, Lillian Hellman, and Tony Kushner.

Andrew Sofer

EN 082.02 Literature and Society (Fall: 3)

Satisfies Literature Core Requirement

In this course we will study the classic coming of age narrative, also known as the bildungsroman. Works will include: Summer, Edith Wharton; Sons and Lovers, D.H. Lawrence; Bastard Out of Carolina, Dorothy Allison; Elmer Gantry, Sinclair Lewis; short fiction by F. Scott Fitzgerald and Dorothy Parker, and selections from Charles Dickens, Shakespeare and several contemporary poets. Midterm and final, three short papers.

Susan Roberts

EN 082.03 Literature and Society (Fall: 3)

Satisfies Literature Core Requirement

This course treats the subject of individual and group alienation from a number of related but separate vantage points—social, moral, political, religious, intellectual, and economic. Readings will be examined critically (close reading) and contextually (culturally); the hope is to strike a balance. Occasionally, a film will be shown. The class is a discussion class, interrupted by an occasional lecture. Students are required to write two essays, 7-9 pages each. Readings are as follows: Madame Bovary, Flaubert; Where I'm Calling From, Carver; Affliction, Banks; The Moviegoer, Walker Percy; The Great Gatsby, Fitzgerald; The Joys of Motherhood, Emecheta; and The Complete Stories, O'Connor.

EN 083.01 Literature: Traditions and Countertraditions: How Identities Are Made (Fall: 3)

Satisfies Literature Core Requirement

This writing-intensive course considers how ideas about “normalcy” affect those considered outside of the dominant culture. Texts that we examine rely on ambiguities inherent in definitions of normalcy to “write” their experiences. Our task, then, is to investigate how such writers re/create identities out of norms that sometimes discount them.

Our interpretations will expand what we know about what is “normal.” Required readings may come from the following genres: drama, novel, short story, and autobiography. The methodology for this course is “close reading”: students will spend a significant amount of time reading, analyzing, discussing, and writing about the assigned works.

Rhonda Frederick

EN 083.02 Literature: Traditions and Countertraditions (Fall: 3)

Satisfies Literature Core Requirement

This course examines literature by and about Latinos and Asian Americans. These two literary traditions are perhaps the most understudied of any ethnic group in the United States, though this is changing quickly. We will contribute to this change by exploring how earlier writers from each group were driven by a concern for social and economic justice. This tradition of concern is very much alive today, though it has also been coupled with the rise of writers who might be described as neo-conservative, such as Richard Rodriguez and Eric Liu, and who perhaps constitute an emerging counter-tradition.

EN 083.03, .05 Literature: Traditions and Countertraditions: Land of the Free (Fall: 3)

Satisfies Literature Core Requirement

What does freedom mean to these two groups, Native Americans and African-Americans, of Americans? One roamed free on the land until it was taken from them, while the other was brought to this country to be slaves. How does the loss of freedom affect them and how is this loss reflected in their literature? We will read traditional stories and contemporary ones of Native Americans and African-Americans to understand their culture, their difficulties in America, and their unique literature. Readings will include: some traditional tales of both cultures, short stories, Paula Gunn Allen's Spider Woman's Granddaughters, Silko's Ceremony, slave narratives, Frederick Douglass and Morrison's Beloved.

History

HS 196.01 Ireland in the Nineteenth Century (Fall: 3)

Prerequisite: Any two semesters of HS 001 through HS 094

This course will examine the political and social history of Ireland from the Rebellion of 1798 to the Easter Rising of 1916. A single text, novels, short stories, film, and a pre-famine diary describe the complexities of nineteenth century Irish society. Topics emphasize the Great Famine, the influence of Daniel O'Connell, Parnell and the Land War, the Crisis of Home Rule, the Gaelic Revival, and the emergence of the Irish Republican Brotherhood.

Honors Program

HP 133.09 Twentieth Century and the Tradition I (Fall: 3)

This course will deal with the unfinished work of the Western Cultural Tradition course, that is, with what happened to the tradition in the 20th century, how it got criticized, rethought, and how it absorbed new forms of knowledge and new points of view.

In a sense, of course, this is how the tradition got formed in the first place and how it got transmitted from classical and biblical times to the present. The course title, therefore, is somewhat misleading in suggesting that there was a single “tradition” to which the 20th century has reacted. But the 20th century has been much more self-conscious than any previous period in its attacks on the tradition and indeed on the very idea of a tradition. Thus, much of the energy of early 20th century culture came from a consciously cultivated conviction among writers and artists that “modernity” was something new and different from the tradition that supposedly had formed the continuous center of European culture.

The first semester deals with the first half of the 20th century and the movements loosely described as “modernism.”

The reading list will not be determined until the first class meetings. We will begin by describing the unfinished business of the Western Cultural Tradition course and clarifying the topics class members want to pursue in order to understand the early 20th century. Then we will decide together how to approach these topics and what books, art works, films, etc. will be helpful to us.

Doing the course this way obviously requires complete class participation. Assignments will include class presentations, written reports about topics presented in class, and a final paper.

Theology

TH 016.03 Introduction to Christian Theology I: History of Christianity, An Exploration of Key Texts from Late Antiquity and the Middle Ages.(Fall: 3)

Satisfies Theology Core Requirement

Students must take both sections of Introduction to Christian Theology to receive core credit.

This course aims to provide an historical introduction to major texts of the Christian tradition. Students will be introduced and invited to respond to the major theological ideas of the Judeo-Christian tradition from Late Antiquity through the Middle Ages. Frequently using first hand narratives, biography and autobiography (genres sometimes grouped as a category called “life writings”), we will explore the ways in which historical persons and groups have conveyed their central ideas about God by writing about their own and others' lives. Finally, the course will show how historical understanding is vital to theological understanding and present self-understanding. While most of the texts we will read are “classics” of Christianity, we will in reading them also pay careful attention to the diversity of voices and viewpoints present in each historical phase of Christianity.

TH 017.03 Introduction to Christian Theology II: History of Christianity II, An Exploration of Key Texts from the Late Medieval and Early Modern Periods.(Spring: 3)

Prerequisite: TH 016.03 Introduction to Christian Theology I

Satisfies Theology Core Requirement

History of Christianity. Part II. Students must take both sections of Introduction to Christianity to receive core credit.

Theology 017 represents the continuation of Theology 016 (History of Christianity, Part I) and continues its chronological study of the Christian religious tradition into the modern period. The course is weighted, chronologically, to the period of religious reform movements from the fifteenth to the seventeenth centuries as foundational to latter developments. While continuing the historical approach of the first half of the course, the format differs in an increased emphasis on discussion and student class participation.

University Courses

UN532 Capstone: Boston's College (Fall/Spring: 3)

Cross listed with HS 241

This seminar will focus on the historical development of Boston College and the continually evolving interaction between its traditions and its students. Students will do archival research on some aspect of Boston College in which they have a personal interest and will record oral histories with faculty, administrators and alumni who can describe the ambiance and personalities of different periods that have shaped the modern university. All students will write a series of reflective essays on their experience with Boston College traditions and the impact it has had on their own personal views of themselves, their pasts and their futures.

Schedule of Courses—Summer 2000

Explanation of Course Numbers

The Boston College Course Number consists of seven characters. The first two characters (alphabetic prefix, e.g., “MA”) indicate the department or program offering the course; the last two characters indicate the section number. The middle three characters indicate the level of the course. When listing courses the entire seven-character symbol must be used as well as the four digit INDEX number which appears to the left of the course. For example: 9999 MA333.01.

Schedule of Courses—Fall Semester 2000

Explanation of Course Numbers

The Boston College Course Number consists of seven characters. The first two characters (alphabetic prefix, e.g., “MA”) indicate the department or program offering the course; the last two characters indicate the section number. The middle three characters indicate the level of the course. When listing courses the entire seven-character symbol must be used as well as the four digit INDEX number which appears to the left of the course. For example: 9999 MA333.01.

Meeting Days

The meeting days of each class are listed in this booklet as follows: M=Monday, T=Tuesday, W=Wednesday, Th=Thursday, F=Friday.

University Courses and Capstones

No student may take more than one Capstone seminar during his/her undergraduate years. Thus, you may not take two Capstone courses in one semester or two different semesters. This is true whether the course is listed under UN numbers, or as a course in a specific department. If a second Capstone course appears on your record, it will be removed. This could make you ineligible for graduation.

Final Exam Information

All courses have a scheduled exam time determined by the starting time of the course. This listing shows standard class meeting time exam assignments for undergraduate courses. In general, common exams are held at 4 pm. If a course does not fit exactly into a module, it assumes the module corresponding to the closest class meeting time. For example, a class meeting T TH 11 is assigned module 10 (T TH 10:30*). In situations where the non-standard time falls halfway between two modules, use the module for the later time. For example, a class meeting M W F 9:30 is assigned module 03 (M W F 10).

All graduate courses meeting once a week and undergraduate courses that start at 4:00 pm or later and meet once a week will have final exams on the first regular class day that occurs during the exam week. All graduate courses meeting more than once a week and undergraduate courses that start at 4:00 pm or later and meet more than once a week will have final exams on the class day that is earliest in the calendar week. For example, the final exam for a T TH 4pm class would be held Tuesday at 4pm. Exams will be held at the usual class meeting time and location unless otherwise posted on the exam schedule.

The meeting place for each exam will be posted in Lyons basement one week prior to the exam period. Exam information is also available on U-View.

If there is a storm during the examination period, there is the expectation that exams will be held as scheduled. In the very rare instance that the exam schedule is delayed or postponed due to inclement weather or other emergency situations, the first available of the following days will be used: The Sunday during the exam week, the afternoon of the last exam day, and the day after the last exam day. If rescheduling is necessary, announcements will be made on WBZ, WRKO, and WBMX, and on the Boston College INFO line (552-4636). For graduate and professional students, announcements concerning final exams will be made on the same radio stations and on 552-INFO. Students are responsible for attending final exams at the scheduled times. In addition, students should consider possible exam rescheduling when making travel plans at the end of the semester.

Students are expected to take no more than two final exams in any one day. If a student has three exams scheduled in one day and one of these is a common exam, it is the responsibility of the instructor holding the common exam to give a make-up exam. If a student has three regularly scheduled exams (this can happen if the student is taking a course that meets at 4:00 pm or later), the instructor teaching the course outside of the standard time blocks (8 am-3 pm) should provide a make-up exam. In addition, if a student has a conflict between a common exam and a regularly scheduled late afternoon or evening course exam, the responsibility for a make-up lies with the instructor offering the common exam.

U-View via Modem

Modem Setup

- In your communications package, set your modem speed to the speed rated for your modem. The other settings remain the same: 8 bits, no parity, hardware handshake or flow control. Error correction should be turned off.

Logging On

- Use your communications software (Mac Terminal, ZTerm, Reflection, ProComm, YTerm, e.g.) to dial the modem pool number appropriate for your modem: 552 3020 for 2400 bps or LESS, 552 0999 for 4800 or GREATER. Long Distance dial: 1 617 552 3020 (or 1 617 552 0999). Use SPACES to separate the numbers!
- You should see CONNECT 2400/REL (speed varies by modem). You MAY have to press <RETURN> several times to establish a connection. Then you will see Servename for Quest/U-View is BCVMCMS.
- Press the <ENTER>or <RETURN> once or twice and you will see Enter Username>. Enter your BC username and press <RETURN>.
- You will see the prompt Type “C” Servename>. For U-View or Quest, type c then a space then BCVMCMS. NOTE: Typing 6100 and 8400 will NOT work.
- Press <RETURN>. On the blank line under Please enter a terminal id; prompt, type 1 for VT100, unless you know that your machine is otherwise.
- The BC screen will appear. Type your username on the Enter your Username, Eagle Number...: prompt and press <RETURN>. (You can use any of the listed options.)
- Tab once and type your PIN (Personal Identification Number) on the Enter Your PIN Number: prompt and press <RETURN>.
- You are now at the APPLICATION MENU screen of UIS. Select the application you wish to use (e.g., UIS, QUEST) and type its corresponding number on the SELECTION=> prompt and press <RETURN>. (For U-View, type 1 for the UIS system.)
- You are now at the System menu for UIS. Your options will vary. Type the number for U-View (or other service) on the ENTER SELECTION line and press <RETURN>.

Logging Off

- If you are using UIS mail, return to its main menu. Type L on the ENTER YOUR CHOICE line and press <RETURN>. If you are using U-Buy, return to its main menu. Type L on the TYPE SELECTION HERE... line and press <RETURN>. If you are using U-View, return to its main menu. Type L on the TYPE SELECTION HERE... line and press <RETURN>.
- The APPLICATION MENU screen will appear. Type L on the SELECTION=> line and press <RETURN>.
- You are now at the BC screen. Type Y on the Enter “Y” to disconnect: prompt and press <RETURN>.
- At the Type “C” Servename> prompt, type log to disconnect. “C” option on U-View Plus (View Courses) can now access both fall and spring courses.

U-View Plus

Instructions are posted in the Student Learning and Support Center and in O’Neill 248.

U-Dial

- Call the Boston College Voice Response Unit: 617-552-8800 If you are calling outside the 617 area code, be sure to dial 1 + 617 before 552-8800.
- Enter your Eagle Number or your social security number upon request.
- Enter your 5-digit personal information number (PIN).
- Once you have accessed the voice response unit, the tape will list the main menu of transactions. (Review the selections below to be sure you understand the differences between transactions.) The system will then request that you choose a transaction by pressing one of the following:

TO ADD A COURSE: If you wish to add a course, press 1 when prompted to do so. Then follow the instructions at each prompt until the add transaction is completed.

TO DROP A COURSE: If you wish to drop a course, press 2 when prompted to do so. Then follow the instructions at each prompt until the drop transaction is completed.

TO ADD AND DROP A COURSE: If you wish to drop one course and then add one course, press 3 when prompted to do so and follow the instructions at each prompt until the drop/add transaction is completed. This transaction will not complete the drop unless you successfully add one course in its place; therefore, you shouldn’t worry when the drop transaction appears not to have gone through. This transaction should be used if you are changing the corequisite for a course (a lab or a discussion group).

TO CHECK THE STATUS OF A COURSE: If you wish to check quickly to see if a particular course is open, press 4 when prompted to do so. Then follow the instructions to check the status of the course.

TO LIST COURSES: Press 5 to hear the courses you are currently registered for or to confirm your transaction(s).

TO END CALL: Press 9 to disconnect from the Voice Response Unit. Be sure to listen carefully to instructions as you proceed with any transaction. If you make a mistake at any time, press * to start over.

Once you are familiar with the system, you can bypass the recorded message by entering the information requested at the beginning of the prompt.

Problems/Error Messages

You may encounter a problem or receive an error message while using the voice response unit.The most probable messages/problems and solutions are listed as follows.

Problem/MessageProbable Solution

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1. Can’t access system | Use a touch-tone phone not a rotary phone, or try from another phone. Your phone may be malfunctioning. |
| 2. System not available | You are calling outside the hours 8:00 A.M. to 11:00 P.M. seven days a week. Please call during U-Dial hours. OR the system is experiencing unscheduled downtime. Please call back in 15 minutes. |
| 3. Busy Signal | The system’s incoming telephone lines are all in use. Try again later. |
| 4. System does not answer | The Voice Response Unit is not functioning. Try again later. |
| 5. Wrong ID | Check to make sure that you are inputting your Eagle or social security number correctly. |
| 6. Wrong PIN | Check to make sure that you are inputting your PIN correctly. |
| 7. Wrong index numbers | Check to make sure that you are inputting the correct 4-digit index number, not the course number (e.g., 9999 rather than EN999.09). Refer to the Schedule of Courses for index numbers. |
| 8. Time Conflict message | Check the Schedule of Courses or the Course Status List available on U-View Plus . If there is still a problem, there may have been a time change. What is on the computer is correct since it is the most up-to-date. |
| 9. The course you want is <ul style="list-style-type: none">a sixth course | Students in A&S, CSOM, and SON who maintain a 3.00 GPA, may add a sixth course on-line (up to 20 credits) during the first week of classes. |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none">restricted to a major or school | You must get the appropriate departmental approval to be allowed to override these restrictions. |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none">closed or requires department | |

For all these restrictions, see the department. If they issue an override, obtain the necessary stamp(s) and/or signature(s) and bring the approved form to Lyons 101 by 4:30 P.M. on September 11.

If the above does not resolve your problem, or if you have a difficult problem, call 617-552-3300 during business hours, Monday-Friday 8:45 A.M. to 4:45 P.M.

Connecting To UIS via an Eaglenet Connection

TN3270 on the IBM

TN3270 is a software tool that allows your networked IBM to establish ‘terminal sessions’ with IBM mainframe computers such as the Boston College UIS System or the QUEST system in order to access U-View or Quest.

Starting TN3270

Double-click on the TN3270 icon. It is located in the PC/TCP Applications window located in your Program Manager.

Logging on to UIS

- Once you have double-clicked on the TN3270 icon, you will see the Open dialog. If this is your first time using this program, the Sessions Available: box will be blank.
- NOTE: The programs TNVT and TN3270 use the same dialogs, so if you save a session in TNVT and then open TN3270, you will see it in the Sessions Available box as well.
- Click on the Cancel button. You will now see a blank screen. Choose New... from the Session menu at the top of your screen.
- You will now see the New dialog. Type bcvmcms.bc.edu in the Host Name or IP Address: box and click on the Connect button.
- You will see a message, Trying to connect to bcvmcms.bc.edu then Entering 3270 mode in the lower left corner of your screen. The BC screen will now appear. Follow the on-screen instructions.

If you do not know your username, consult your Communications Directory.

If you have forgotten your PIN (Personal Identification Number), you must go to the HELP Center in person or the O’Neill Computing Facility and present your valid Boston College ID. An authorized person will then look it up.

Saving a Session

(“shortcuts” to connect to a host)

Boston College’s University Information System (UIS) is being used for this example. You can save any other session to any other host in the same way.

- Open a connection to UIS or any other Host computer.
- Once you are through, log out of UIS as you normally do. Choose Close from the Session menu.
- You will now see the TN3270 dialog asking you if you want to save this session. Click on Yes.
- You will now see the Save As dialog box. Type UIS or bcvmcms (matter of preference) in the New Session Name box. Click on the Save button.

Opening an existing session

(using “shortcuts”)

- Double-click on the TN3270 icon if you are not logged in, or choose Open from the Session menu if TN3270 is already open. You must close a current session to open a new one.
- You will now see the Open dialog box. You should see UIS or bcvmcms (depending on what you named it) in the Sessions Available: box.
- Click on the name to highlight and click on the Connect button. You should now see the BC screen.

Quitting TN 3270

- Log out of whatever system you are currently connected to.
- Choose Close from the Session menu.
- Choose Exit from the File menu. You will be asked if you want to save the session. If you have already saved a session document for UIS, or any other Host computer, click No.

Telnet Users

- Choose New... from the Session menu at the top of your screen.
- You will now see the New dialog. Type bcvmcms.bc.edu in the Host Name or IP Address: box and click on the Connect button.

Logging on to UIS

- Choose Open Connection from the File menu.
- Type BCVMCMS.BC.EDU in the Session name box and click on the OK button.

Ex.: USERJOE:USERJOE@HERMES.BC.EDU; USERJOE is the username.)
- Type your Personal Identification Number at the PIN: prompt and press <RETURN/ENTER>.

If you have forgotten your PIN, you must go to the HELP Center, Gasson 12, or the O’Neill Computing Facility in person and present your valid Boston College ID. An authorized person will then look it up.

- You are now at the main screen of B.C.’s UIS system.

Shortcut to UIS

- If you mainly log on to BC’s UIS System, you can automatically advance to the login screen and skip the Open Connection and Session name boxes.
- Within the TN3270 folder, you will see two documents: “UIS System/Color” and ‘UIS System/B&W’. If you double-click on either of these documents, you will immediately advance to the Username: prompt.
- If you have a color monitor, double-click on the ‘UIS System/Color’ icon. If you have a black and white (or ‘greytone’) monitor double-click on the ‘UIS System/B&W’ icon.
